

What happens when an executive/management team is not at 100% efficiency in your competitive environment?

Increased stress, overdue projects, increase costs, etc...

- Would you like to have a leadership assessment of your executive team in action?
- Wouldn't it be powerful to fully understand the dynamics of your executive team, seeing many of their strengths and weaknesses?

Come and Compete The 2008 Leadership Challenge So You think You Can Lead...?

Saturday, March 8th, 2008

This is your personal invitation to gather a team of 5-7 leaders from your organization and compete in the 3rd Annual Leadership Challenge.

Designed by renowned author and global speaker/researcher, Dr. Ted Sun (recently on NBC News), the challenge will have 7 interactive activities that involve assessments including:

- Critical and strategic thought
- Emotional intelligence
- Hierarchical adoptability
- Group cohesion
- Communication talents
- Executive dreaming and many more...

As a multi-faceted assessment, this challenge is not just another survey! Get an assessment of your team in action!

Your participation will provide your organization the following:

1. A leadership assessment of your team
2. A roadmap for future development
3. Encouragement to lead based on their strengths, while developing their weaknesses

Your investment: $750/team (corporate rate)

Register soon, only 16 teams will be competing. Deadline: February 29, 2008

Location: 200 E. Wilson Bridge Road

Time: 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Date: March 8th, 2008

Please contact 614-538-1664 or email: sunt@executive-balance.com to register